

APPLICATION FOR A SOCIAL INSURANCE NUMBER INFORMATION GUIDE FOR APPLICANTS

IMPORTANT NOTICE: This application form is not required if you apply in-person at a Service Canada point of service

DID YOU KNOW?

- * There is no fee to apply for a Social Insurance Number (SIN).
- * Original proof-of-identity documents are required to apply for a SIN, photocopies are not accepted.

How to apply

In-Person

If you reside in Canada, you should apply in-person at a Service Canada point of service.

Service Canada has made it easy and secure for you to apply for a Social Insurance Number (SIN) or to amend your SIN record. When applying in-person, you do not have to complete an application form nor do you have to mail your original proof-of-identity documents. Simply gather the documents you need and take them to the nearest Service Canada point of service.

Refer to the list of documents in Step 1 to determine the original proof-of-identity documents you are required to bring. If everything is in order, you will obtain your SIN at the time of your visit. To find the nearest Service Canada point of service, visit our Web site at Canada.ca/social-insurance-number or call 1-800-O-CANADA (1-800-622-6232).

If this is not possible for you, there are alternate options which include having another individual submit your application for you in-person.

By Mail

All applicants residing in Canada should apply in-person; however, special measures are in place to accommodate individuals who cannot apply in-person at a Service Canada point of service. Only individuals in these circumstances are permitted to apply by mail:

If you live 100 km or more from the nearest Service Canada point of service, in an inaccessible area, or where outreach is very infrequent, you may apply by mail. If you are unsure if you are eligible, visit our Web site at Canada.ca/social-insurance-number to confirm your eligibility to apply by mail using your postal code or contact Service Canada at 1-800-206-7218 (select option #3).

If you are unable to apply in-person at a Service Canada point of service due to other extenuating limitations and cannot have another individual submit an application in-person on your behalf, you must contact Service Canada at 1-800-206-7218 (select option #3) to confirm if you are eligible to apply by mail.

If you currently reside outside Canada, you are eligible to apply by mail. Follow Steps 1 to 3 to submit your application form and provide original proof-of-identity documents to the Social Insurance Registration office.

Step 1 - Gather the original proof-of-identity documents required

Whether you apply in-person or by mail, you must provide original primary proof-of-identity documents to prove your identity and legal status in Canada. Photocopies are not accepted. You may also need to provide supporting proof-of-identity documents if the name indicated on your primary proof-of-identity document is different than the name you are currently using. If you are a parent, legal guardian or legal representative applying on behalf of the applicant, you must provide additional documents; refer to the list provided below under Additional document(s) required for representatives.

When applying in-person, your original documents will be returned to you immediately.

Translation requirements:

Note: You must provide original documents; photocopies are not accepted.

If you submit a document that is not in English or French, you must also submit:

- an English or French translation of the document; and
- an attestation or affidavit written and signed by the translator.

If the document has been translated by a certified translator, you must submit an attestation. The attestation is a document stating that the translation is a true and accurate version of the original text. (A certified translator is a member of a provincial or territorial organization of translators and interpreters.)

If the document has been translated by a translator who is not certified, you must submit an affidavit. The affidavit is a document stating that the translation is a true and accurate version of the original text. The translator must sign the affidavit before a commissioner for oaths or a commissioner for taking affidavits. (A commissioner for oaths or a commissioner for taking affidavits is appointed by a province or territory.)

Note:

Translations by family members are not acceptable. (A family member is defined as being a parent, guardian, sibling, spouse, grandparent, child, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew or first cousin.)

Refer to the list below to determine the proof-of-identity documents that you will need to apply.

Primary proof-of-identity documents

Canadian citizens must submit one of the following original documents:

- a certificate of birth or birth certificate issued by the vital statistics agency in the province or territory where you were born (Note: Quebec proof-of-birth documents issued prior to 1994 are not accepted);
- Certificate of Canadian Citizenship issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC);
- or
- Certificate of Registration of Birth Abroad issued by IRCC.

If you are a registered Indian and you want to register your status in your SIN record, you must provide:

- your Birth Certificate (see section on Canadian citizens) and a Certificate of Indian Status issued by Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada (INAC)

Permanent Residents of Canada need to provide one of the following original documents:

- Permanent Resident Card issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship (IRCC);
- Confirmation of Permanent Residence issued by IRCC, accompanied by either a travel document (for example, a foreign passport) or an alternate photo identification issued by a provincial/territorial authority (for example, a driver's licence). Note: The Confirmation of Permanent Residence is acceptable if used within one year of the date you became a permanent resident. The Permanent resident card is required after this period ;
- Record of Landing issued by IRCC before June 28, 2002;
- Verification of Landing issued by IRCC (only acceptable to amend a SIN record or to obtain confirmation of an existing SIN); or
- Status Verification OR Verification of Status issued by IRCC (only acceptable to amend a SIN record or to obtain confirmation of an existing SIN).

Temporary Residents of Canada need to provide one of the following original documents:

- Work permit issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship (IRCC);
- Study permit issued by IRCC, indicating that you are authorized to work in Canada.
 - a study permit that indicates the permit holder “may accept employment” or “may work” in Canada; or
 - a study permit and a “confirmation to work off campus” letter issued by IRCC prior to February 11, 2015.

If neither of these requirements is met, you may contact IRCC to verify if you are eligible to apply for an amended study permit.

- Visitor record issued by IRCC, indicating you are authorized to work in Canada; or
- Diplomatic identity card and note of permission of employment issued by Global Affairs Canada.

Other - Individuals residing outside Canada who are not Canadian citizens or Registered Indians with no legal status in Canada and are eligible to receive a Canadian government benefit or pension need to provide both of the following original documents:

- Birth Certificate issued by a state authority from your country of birth (if not in English or French, see beginning of Step 1) AND
- Letter confirming eligibility for pension or benefits from Canada Pension Plan (CPP), Old Age Security (OAS) or Régie des rentes du Québec (RRQ).

Supporting proof-of-identity documents

You must also provide an original supporting proof-of-identity document if the name indicated on your primary proof-of-identity document (see above) is different than the name you are currently using. You will need to provide one of the following supporting proof-of-identity documents, if required:

- Certificate of marriage or a similarly titled document, depending on the issuing authority to support your family name after marriage. Note: This does not apply to Quebec residents who were married after April 1, 1981, regardless of where they were married;
- Legal Change of Name Certificate or Court Order document issued in accordance with provincial/territorial change of name act in Canada or similar legislation;
- Adoption order certified by a provincial/territorial court for adoptions in Canada only;
- Notarial Adoption Certificate issued by the country of origin of the child adopted abroad;
- Request to Amend Record of Landing issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC); or
- Divorce Decree or a similarly titled document issued in accordance with a provincial/territorial court in Canada for the dissolution of marriage. Note: Documents issued by a foreign country are not acceptable.

Additional documents required for representatives

Parent or legal guardian applying on behalf of a minor child

If you are a parent or a legal guardian applying on behalf of a minor child (i.e. child under the age of majority in the province, territory of residence), you must provide:

- The child’s original primary proof-of-identity document as listed in Step 1 above;
- The child’s original supporting proof-of-identity document, if applicable;
- Your own original primary proof-of-identity document as listed in Step 1 above; and,

If you are a legal guardian, you must also provide an original or certified copy of a document confirming legal guardianship issued by a provincial/territorial authority or similar legislation (in Quebec, a notarized Will is an acceptable document).

Legal representative applying on behalf of a minor child or an adult

If you are a court appointed lawyer or individual, or provincial/territorial employee applying on behalf of a minor child or an adult, you must provide:

- The child's or adult's original primary proof-of-identity document as listed in Step 1 above;
- The child's or adult's original supporting proof-of-identity document, if applicable;
- Your own original valid employee photo identification or government-issued identification, e.g. valid driver's license or passport; and,
- An original or certified copy of a document confirming proof of legal representation issued by a provincial/territorial authority or similar legislation (in Quebec, a notarized Will is an acceptable document).

If you are a provincial/territorial employee, you must also provide an original Letter of Authorization issued on agency letterhead by the agency's Director/Administrator authorizing the legal representative to represent the agency to apply for a SIN.

REMEMBER: Photocopies are not accepted.

Step 2 - Complete the Application Form

This application form is not required if you apply in-person. However, a completed and signed application form is required if you are authorizing another individual to submit the application in-person on your behalf.

You must fully complete items 1 to 13, except gender information (in item 3), which is optional. The parent listed in item 4 must not be repeated in item 5. Parents can appear in any order. You must sign and date the application form (in blue or black ink).

Note: Some provinces have passed legislation to recognize up to four parents on the registration of birth and you now have the option to have them all listed on your SIN record. In order to document the parent(s) that do not appear on the application form, attach a separate sheet of paper. On this sheet, provide the given name(s) and the family name at birth of each parent and underline the family name at birth.

Signature on the application form:

The application form must be signed by the applicant, except in the following situations:

- Child under 12 years of age: the parent or legal guardian must sign the application form.
- Child over 12 years of age and under the age of majority in their province or territory of residence: the child, parent or legal guardian must sign the application form.
- Minor child or adult applicant who is represented by a legal guardian or legal representative: the provincial/territorial employee, the legal guardian, or the court appointed lawyer or individual must sign the application form.

If "X" is used as a signature, two witnesses must sign in the signature portion and indicate their relationship to you on the application form.

IMPORTANT: If you are a parent, legal guardian or legal representative, check the appropriate box on the form to indicate your relationship to the applicant and print and sign your name (Section 13).

Failure to fully complete, sign and date the application form will result in your application not being accepted.

Step 3 - Mail the application and original documents

If you are eligible to apply by mail, you can mail an application form with original proof-of-identity documents. Service Canada is not responsible for documents lost in the mail. You should protect your personal information by sending your documents in a secure manner (for example by using a postal service with tracking). Photocopies are not acceptable. Refer to the How to Apply section to ensure you are eligible to apply by mail. If your application and documents are in order, you will receive your SIN in the mail within 20 business days. Failure to provide the necessary documents will result in your application not being accepted.

Mail the completed, signed application form and all required original proof-of-identity documents to:

Service Canada
Social Insurance Registration Office
P.O. Box 7000
Bathurst, NB E2A 4T1
Canada

Note: Prior to mailing your application, refer to the Social Insurance Number Application – Checklist for Applicants Eligible to Apply by Mail to ensure your application is complete. An application that is incomplete, unsigned or missing original proof-of-identity documents will not be accepted.
